

NUTRIKAL

PREMIUM PRIVATE LABEL SUPPLEMENT MANUFACTURING

Premium Manufacturing. Global Vision. Proven Expertise.

Nutrikal is a premium dietary supplement manufacturer with over 15 years of experience helping brands bring innovative products to market.

Based in the European Union (Varna, Bulgaria), we deliver world-class production standards while keeping flexibility and cost-effectiveness at the core of our approach.

We specialize in capsules, powders, protein bars, and functional foods, combining in-depth formulation expertise with regulatory know-how, branding support, and tailored solutions for every client.

Our team partners with startups and established brands across the EU, Middle East, and US, guiding them through the entire journey - from concept and formulation to packaging, compliance, and full-scale production.

With GMP and HACCP certifications, strict quality control, and a focus on clean-label ingredients, Nutrikal helps you bring premium, market-ready products to life with confidence.

Minimum order quantity of 500 pcs applies to pre-made formulations from our product catalogue.*

Nutrikal is your single, reliable partner - from formulation and pilot runs to full-scale production, packaging, and regulatory support.

Extensive Ingredient Portfolio

We offer access to a broad library of over 400 herbal extracts, amino acids, vitamins, minerals, and functional ingredients, allowing us to build truly differentiated products.

In addition, we work with leading branded ingredients to give your formulations a competitive edge and boost consumer trust:

Peptan · GELITA · Creapure® · BioPerine® · DigeZyme® Multi-Enzyme-Complex · Cognizin® · KSM-66® Ashwagandha · LactoSpore® · nextida·GC · metabolaid® · PEAK ATP® · Magtein®

Market Insight Meets Technical Precision

Our formulation team combines scientific expertise with practical market knowledge. We stay ahead of trends shaping the nutraceutical industry, such as:

- GLP-1 & metabolic health support
- Nootropic & cognitive blends
- Functional protein powders
- Anti-aging & mitochondrial support
- Natural beauty and hormonal balance solutions

We'll help you optimize ingredient choices, dosages, and cost structure - ensuring your products deliver real results while remaining commercially viable.

Nutrikal's formulation expertise turns innovative ideas into market-ready products, with a clear focus on quality, compliance, and consumer appeal.

Built for Startups. Trusted by Growing Brands.

Nutrikal partners with a wide range of businesses – from ambitious startups entering the nutraceutical space to established brands expanding their product lines.

Our flexible production model, deep formulation expertise, and strategic support make us the ideal partner at every stage of your journey.

Startups & Emerging Brands

We understand the challenges of launching new products - because we've been there ourselves. That's why we offer:

- Low MOQs, allowing you to test the market with minimal risk
- Hands-on guidance through formulation, branding, regulatory, and production steps
- Cost-effective manufacturing without compromising on quality

Whether you need your first capsule line or a full range of functional powders and bars, we help you get to market fast, efficiently, and confidently.

Established Brands & Distributors

For growing companies and distributors, Nutrikal offers the capacity, compliance, and sophistication to support larger runs and more complex product portfolios. With over 1,000,000 capsules produced daily and strict quality protocols, we deliver consistently - batch after batch.

We work with partners across the European Union, Middle East, and United States, providing GMP- and HACCP-certified production with the regulatory and logistical support needed for smooth market expansion.

Strategic Partnerships

Our approach goes beyond manufacturing. We collaborate with clients to develop long-term product pipelines, identify emerging trends, and optimize existing SKUs for performance and profitability. With in-house branding and regulatory expertise, we become an extension of your team, not just your supplier.
